Town and County.

Be certain to Register.

We were glad to see Mr. John Thomas of Jefferson in town last week.

Mr. J. F. Hardin has now in process of erection a nice new barn.

It wasn't hard to tell, last Saturday, which was the negro party.

A number of important communications crowded out of this issue—they will appear in next.

We welcome our young friend W. R. Lovill to the legal profession, and bespeak success for him.

We are indebted to our friend Elijah Norris Esq. for a present of several bushels of nice apples.

L. L. Green and J. F. Spainhour speak at Zion Hill on Watauga River, next Friday at 11 o'clock.

We call attention to the advertisement of Valuable lands for sale, by Daniel T. Jones, Furches, N. C.

It is time our boys and girls were making up nutting parties if they expect to get ahead of the squirrels.

J. F. Spainhour will have repairs made on the Floyd property, which he now owns, before moving in.

We can't afford to publish anonymous communications. We must have your name, not for publication but for our protection.

Miss Mamie Moore, the lovely and accomplished daughter of Capt. M. V. Moore of Lenoir, is visiting her aunt Mrs. Dr. Connell.

One of the most pleasant events of the season was a candy stew given by Misses Emma and Jennie Council, complimentary to Miss Moore.

We have heard it whispered that a matrimonial wave will soon pass over our little village and carry with it one of our fairest maidens.

If you did not register for the R. R. election, you must do so now before you can vote.

Don't fail to attend to this matter at once.

A very interesting article, from Meat Camp, on the Third Party's man in this county, is crowded out of this issue but will appear in next.

Lander Horton (col.) of this place died last week of typhoid fever and was buried on Friday evening. Lander was a good citizen and leaves a wife and three children to mourn his loss.

The funeral of Harrison C. Calloway, son of Wm. H. Calloway, and two other of his small children, will be preached at or near Watauga Baptist Church on the 11th Sunday in Oct. '88, at 11 o'clock.

A man by the name of Robnett was killed near Swanner, in Alexander county, last Saturday evening by Arthur and Gaston Barnes. One of the Barnes boys knocked Robnett down with a rock and the other stabbed him. We understand they were all drinking.

Miss Etta Donnelly of Mountain City, Tenn. was the guest of Miss Emma Council last week, she left Friday morning for Davenport College where she goes to finish her studies in German Music.

There is a man in this county by the name of Jenkins who comes, he says, from Statesville. He claims to be employed by Mr. Leonard to sell organs. We have not heard of his selling any organs, but we have heard of his making several appointments to lecture on temperance and when the crowd assembled, to their surprise, they were to hear, not a temperance lecture but a very abusive third rate Third Party speech. If Jenkins is to be taken as a sample of a Third Party speaker its not surprising that their following is small.

A scathing speech.

We gave a few days ago a specimen of the speech which Hon. Patrick A. Collins, of Boston, made in New York City last week at the mass-meeting held to ratify the nominations of the Democratic party for the State officers. Here is another: his description of the conduct of the Republican leaders after the war between the States had ended.

"They declined to confiscate directly individual estates, but they plundered the whole southern region; they refused to hang a single rebel but they crucified the States. Drunk with bower, made possible to them by the trusting patriotism of the whole people of the North in the blaze of the civil war, they wasted and stole, and stole and wasted until it seemed as if there was nothing else left, and then they stole the presidency of the United States. This darkest blot upon our national history makes scarlet the cheek of even the common malefactor to contemplate, and will never be forgotten or forgiven while honest men have memories or conscience lives in human breasts."—Richmond Dispatch.

Our friend, Mr. Chas. Overman, now of Charlotte, N. C. has just returned from his summer sojourn in the mountains of Western N. C. He looks well and several years younger. Mountain air certainly agrees with him. In conversation with Mr. Overman, he says that the nicest, cleanest and most reasonable resting place he found was at T. J. Coffey & Bro's. Hotel, at Boone, who have good accommodations, treat their guests affably and courteously, and charge them a small price. Mr. Overman also states that the Watauga Democracy is enthusiastic and in excellent fighting trim, and propose to carry the county by a larger majority than they have ever done before.—North Carolina Herald.
